

Landseer E.C.T. (European Continental Type) - FCI Standard 226/24.08.196

The origin of the Landseer stems back to Germany and Switzerland. In Europe Landseer is considered as a separate breed and protected under number 226 of F.C.I. since 1960.

co

The Landseer should convey the impression of a tall, powerful and well balanced dog. The legs are comparatively longer than those of the Newfoundland - especially in the male. They have much sporty appearance.

E

legant, harmonious,
agile

**,
and in the same time hardy and strong dogs

Breed Description

Saturday, 11 February 2012 14:13 - Last Updated Friday, 19 April 2013 14:52

---

•
□□□□ The main color of the coat is a clear white with distinct black patches on body and croup. Collar, forechest, belly, legs and tail is white. The head is black, with a white muzzle and a white symmetrical blaze.

□□□□ The Landseers are dogs with an outstanding temperament -□ well-intentioned, courageous, generous and extremely intelligent.□

They are calm, gentle, loyal and trustworthy with a sweet temperament. Dignified and prone to peace full attitude

•
They are brave and very devoted to their owner

•
Very suitable and gentle with children

•
The giant Landseer loves to play and to be surrounded with kids.

